

Pursuant to Local Rule 83.17, Defendants’ counsel GREENSFELDER, HEMKER & GALE, P.C. (“Greensfelder”) and its attorneys David B. Goodman and Patrick J. Cotter move to withdraw as Defendants’ counsel of record. In support of its motion, Greensfelder states:

1. The Attorney-Client relationship between Greensfelder and Defendants, Lifewatch Inc. and Evan Sirlin, is irrevocably broken making further legal representation not possible.
2. The Sultzer Law Group, Jason Sultzer, and Joseph Lipari are already counsel for Defendants in this matter and will continue to be the Defendants' litigation counsel. No trial date has been set, and there are no motions pending.
3. The FTC, through its counsel, have advised that they do not object to this motion nor do they object to having this motion heard with less than three days' notice.

WHEREFORE, Greensfelder and each of its attorneys respectfully request that this Court grant this motion and enter an order allowing Greensfelder to withdraw from this case.

Respectfully submitted,

GREENSFELDER, HEMKER AND GALE, P.C.
